E.coli Advisory Posting Flow Chart This chart is meant to be a guidance for posting advisories related to E. coli sampling. No Action or Remove Advisory Sample(s) greater than 236 No MPN/100 mL water. Continue routine biweekly monitoring of designated swim beaches. Yes Number of samples greater than 236 MPN/ 100 mL water? >1 1 Issue WARNING advisory Issue CLOSURE/advisory Swimming and wading not advised. Water may Avoid all water contact. be unsafe due to increased Dangerous levels of bacteria detected. levels of bacteria. Harmful bacteria have been detected in the water and can make you sick. Bacteria are passed into the water through human or animal feces. Harmful bacteria have been detected in the water and can make you sick. Bacteria are passed into the water through human or animal feces. For more information about this and other swim beaches: For more information about this and other swim beaches: Clark County Public Health 564,397,8428 or visit Clark County Public Health 564.397.8428 or visit: Issue press release, update website, inform applicable parks/pubic works agency of advisory.

Resample beach weekly.